A NEW YEAR MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

As we herald in yet another New Year with renewed hopes for a better tomorrow, I wish all of you and your families a Happy New Year and the strength to face life's new challenges with wisdom.

The profile of the OGA membership has changed considerably over the past several years, with a much larger percentage of our members pursuing professional careers. Sri Lanka's record of education of girls is exemplary and has inspired attitudinal changes that command a respect for the potential of women to contribute to the development of our country. We take pride in the achievements of our own old girls, and are mindful that the OGA needs to cater to the young achievers as well.

The challenge for the OGA then, is to provide a mixed bag of activities that will cater to the interests of our entire membership while continuing to give the space for fellowship, interaction and fun.

We look forward to seeing more of our members at the events that will be held this year.

The Annual General Meeting of the Ladies' College Old Girls' Association was held on 20th October 2012 at 9.45 am in the Mabel Simon Hall. This year, the Annual General Meeting was preceded by a brunch. After the meeting we had a short demonstration by Prima Baking School.

PAST EVENTS

SENIOR MEMBERS' CHRISTMAS DINNER

The Seniors' Christmas Dinner was held on Friday, 30th November 2012 at the Gaster House at 5.30 pm. We are happy to report that the member participation this year was very encouraging and that we were able to arrange a lovely evening for the seniors. As the seniors arrived they were ushered in to have their photograph taken and each guest received a photo mounted card as a souvenir. Besides the sing along carols with Santa, there was also a beautiful performance by the Primary School choir. Festivities included games and draws with many prizes and gifts to take away.

OGA CHRISTMAS DINNER

The OGA Christmas Dinner was held on Monday, 10th December 2012 at the Galle Face Hotel, Colombo.

It was a fun evening involving a whole host of games in a competitive team format. The solo bala dance by an enthusiastic member entertained the crowd while the gangnam dance competition was an absolute hit and PSY would have been profoundly impressed!! There was an array of exciting prizes which included several hampers and three return air tickets to Singapore and Dubai. It was a happy and memorable evening for all those who attended.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of two cheques, one for Rupees 5 million to Mrs. Nirmali Wickremesinghe as a contribution towards the sports complex and the other for Rupees 5 lakhs to Mrs. Mala Salgado for the Department of Vocational Studies, both out of funds raised by the OGA in the year 2012.

Lecture Series

The second lecture in our series will be held on 1st March 2013 on “Building Lasting Relationships - the Art, Science and Practice”. Overworked, stressed-out and time constrained, we can barely keep up with the frenzied pace of our lives – and our relationships are breaking down as a result. Men and women respond to stress in unique ways, each individual has a different language to communicate. “He sends you flowers when what you really want is time to talk. She gives you a hug when what you really want is a home-cooked meal”. Understanding what is important to the other person helps a great deal in building a lasting relationship.

Dr Piyanjali De Zoysa, BA, MA, PhD, will give a 20 minute presentation on the topic after which there will be a panel discussion and a question and answer session. For your privacy, question cards will be available for you to address your questions. This is a useful lecture and a must for couples of all age groups. The lecture will focus on relationships between couples and also between parents and children, even adult children. It will be open to the public so please bring your friends. Tickets are priced at Rs 300/- for OGA members and Rs.400/- for non members. Tickets will be available at the OGA Secretariat. Please produce your membership card when purchasing your ticket. Time 5-6.30 pm. Venue: School New Hall.
